

What can artistic participation bring about for older people whose mental health is declining? What do you have to take into account from the side of the artist or the elderly care facility ?

